THE merchants are doing a gratifying business this week. We are glad to see it. They have certainly gone to great expense, even risk, to afford the public with an opportunity to have a full line for Christmas.

UNCLE SAM can afford to mix up a little in the Venezuelan affair to preserve his interests. That country owes him an amount but he is not worrying about it. Still it is best to look after one's own, when some one else wants to hog it.

SINCE the Powers have asked Roosevelt to arbitrate the Venezuelan difficulty it might be well for him to accede to their wishes but we would suggest that he maintain the Monroe doctrine even if he has to pay off the indebtedness and take a first mortgage on Venezuela. He could do this and foreclose it in a year or so. Uncle Sam has no particular objection to gobbling up the earth as we are in a fair way to get it all before the close of the present century any way.

A PROMINENT Baptist preacher in New York City has resigned his pastorate and gone into the saloon business. He tends bar himself. This divine says some of his prominent church members slip in the side doors and take their drinks. They say he took an occasional drink. Since he has left the ministry no investigation by the church is necessary in his case but something of the kind is essential in reference to those church members, and if what he says is true of them, they are practically on the same footing as he is.

DID it ever occur to thoughtful readers that grand juries are so powerful as well as threatening that they cause some people to seek other climes and be Mormons? Then again there are some hypocrites who get so rotten of body that it is necessary for them to go away from home to get cured. It is not necessary to mention names in this connection. We know of some who would have undoubtedly been before the grand jury, if they had remained at their native heath and who would not have survived their iniquitous practices if they had not gone to a health resort. These same persons have been vociferous for reform.

Marriage Licenses

William Melowick and Antonio Sienkewicz.
Owen Allen McAtee and Sarah Kendall.
Z. B. Oehran and Ingabab Meyer.

ARRESTS

Of Several Parties Made at Salem, Sunday.

Duff Gives Bond and Women Sent to Jail.

Constables Lawman and Mitchell made raids at Salem all day Sunday; not exactly raids but arrests whenever they could find persons for whom they had warrants. The parties arrested were Lloyd Duff, Dudley Pomroy, F. M. Thompson alias Farmer, and Mary Daly. Duff waived examination before Squire Gordon Monday, and Thompson put up a forfeit for his appearance later. Mary Daly was incarcerated in the county jail. Pomroy was released on a defect in the complaint.

COAL DEAL

Closed by Salem Citizens With Pennsylvanians.

Quite a number of Salem's prominent business men were in the city yesterday says the Parkersburg News looking after their interests, some of them making extensive holiday purchases. Among the visitors were Capt. G. W. F. Randolph, Hon. H. F. McKinney, J. W. Carpenter, F. C. Devericks, and Constable E. J. Sutton. Mr. McKinney and Capt. Randolph were at the Jackson, where they met by appointment, representative of the Barnes-Cochran coal syndicate, to which they disposed of an extensive tract of coal land lying in Doddridge and Wetzel counties. The details of the deal would not be given out.

MURDER

Committed at Chiefton by Colored Man.

Cal Hackney was shot and instantly killed Sunday evening by Wm. Beech about six o'clock, at Chiefton. Both men were colored and employed by the Fairmont Coal Company at this place. Hackney and Beech had had some trouble in regard to money that was due Beech. Those standing near heard Beech demand his dollar. That was all that was heard, until a few seconds later two shots were fired by Beech from a 38-calibre revolver, and Hackney fell dead. After seeing that he had killed Hackney, Beech left, going towards Worthington and has not been seen or heard from since.

POST GRADUATE

Course in Europe Will be Taken by Dr. Kessler.

Dr. A. K. Kessler, of the Kessler hospital, will take a post-graduate course in one of the leading medical colleges in London, England. He will also visit the principal hospitals in all Europe. Dr. Kessler will sail from New York December 31 on the steamer Philadelphia of the American Line. He expects to be gone three or four months. The trip and the knowledge will be of great value to both the hospital and the community. Dr. Kessler has had splendid success with his hospital here but it is his desire to make it of even greater service to the public than heretofore.

Married in New York

The marriage of Mr. Louis P. Flickinger, superintendent of the Pitcairn Coal Company of this city, and Miss Hazel Gardner, of Easton, Pa., was solemnized in New York City, Wednesday, December 17. They will make Clarksburg their home.

Amusements

"Gypsy Jack," Jan. 23

Despite the apparent sway of farce comedy and "show girl" performances, the old-fashioned melodrama still claims its devoted adherents. That this is so, without a doubt, is practically proven by the unstinted success which has greeted Willis Granger during his present tour with "Gypsy Jack." Not only is Manager Edward C. White highly pleased with the reception which has greeted his new star, but the latter has, by his intrinsic worth as a melo-dramatic actor, proven his fitness for the role of the gypsy boy, which is the leading character in the production.

Miss Katherine Willard is adding new laurels to her reputation by her rendition of "Aria" in the emotional drama, "The Power Behind the Throne." Miss Willard has proved her ability and exceptional talents in the production, so much so that her tour is one continuous ovation. Nothing is lacking in scenic effect, stage mechanism or costuming to keep "The Power Behind the Throne" up to the topmost standard, while the star's support "play up to her" with admirable skill.

The Tide of Life

Effingham, Ill., Nov. 7, 1902. "The Tide of Life" played my house on November 7, to a big house and gave entire satisfaction. The company is a well selected one and the scenery and electrical effects extraordinary. The specialties far surpass any presented here so far this season. EDWARD AUSTIN, Manager Opera House, Edwardsville, Ill.
